Strike a Pose

Silhouetted in the night, Craig Koons looks as if he is posing for a picture as he passes the ball at the beginning of a play at the Homecoming game. The Vikings were victorious over the Huskies- 41 to 0.

The Russian Rush

Seniors Michelle Reed, Gail Kuzbiel, and Aaron Bekert show off the Senior float of Russia. The huskies on the float were made by Jay Fosgitt, and Michelle was nominated their tamer. The float won third place in the judging competition. Way to go Seniors 93"!

if needed and Craig Koons uses a Hemlock Huskie as a tackle dummy on Homecoming night.

"WHO, ME CUT CLASS?? NO WAY!"
Senior Dave MacNeil says while standing at his locker at lunch.

Ann Porras and Sara Spicer experience "modern art" as Ann threatens Sara with scissors in the advanced art class.

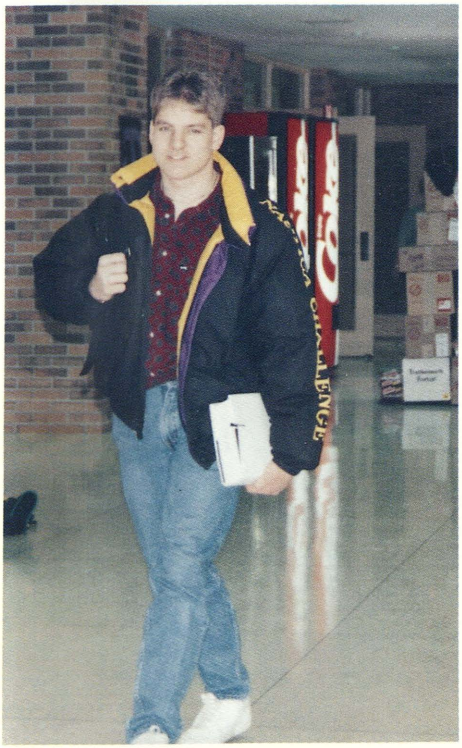
Friends forever, Heather Matula and Kristen Howley spend a Friday night at a school function.

Impersonating a bag lady, Mrs. Leachman dresses up with school spirit on Halloween.

THE BEST OF 1992-1993 SOMETHING FOR EVERYONE

Standing out on Homecoming night, Varsity cheerleader Lisa Varner gives it her all for the team.

Move over Baryshnikov! Here comes Dave Barret!



Serious student of the Year Awards goes to.....Jim Jesselaitis.

Junior class waits around patiently as ever for an exciting pep-rally to start.

At Activity Night in March all grades participate in volleyball, pizza eating, the Mock Rock and Dance, and obstacle course. What a night.

FRIENDS FOREVER

ONE LAST TIME

The Senior Trip was a blast! Two buses full of seniors and chaperones left at 6:00 AM on June 2, 1993. Following breakfast at "Mickey D's" in Dundee, Ohio we arrived at Cedar Point at about 11:00 AM. The park, especially the rides, and the afternoon were great fun.

At 6:00 PM the buses departed for Saw Mill Creek in Sandusky, Oh. Oh, oh the hot tub! Oh, the dinner! Oh, and the dance . . .

The giftatory followed dinner. Everyone felt so emotionally close that no one wanted the day to end. Leaving Sandusky at 12:30 AM, the group arrived back at Swan Valley at 4:15 AM feeling happy, sad, and extremely tired.

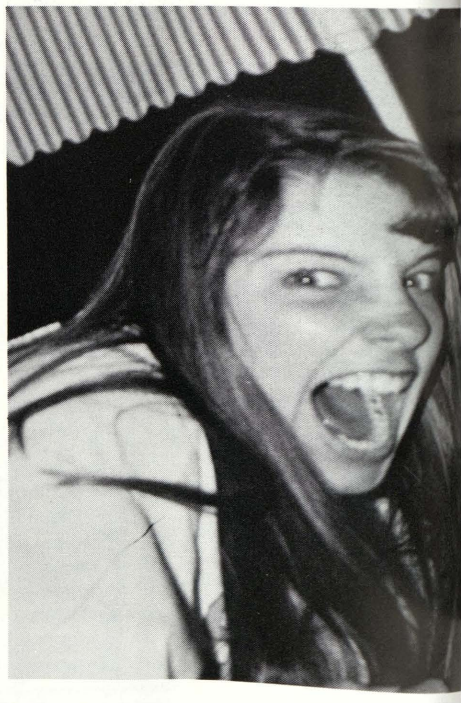
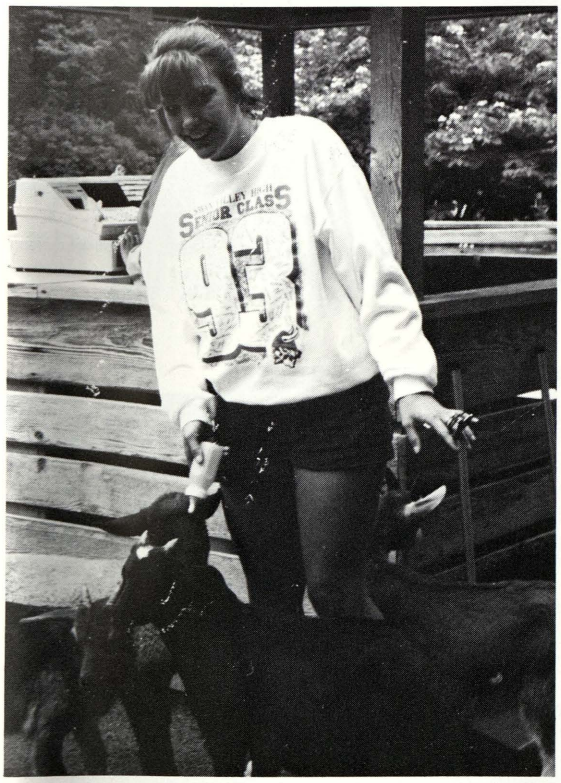
Before getting ready for dinner, some of the Seniors enjoy their last few minutes in the hot tub.

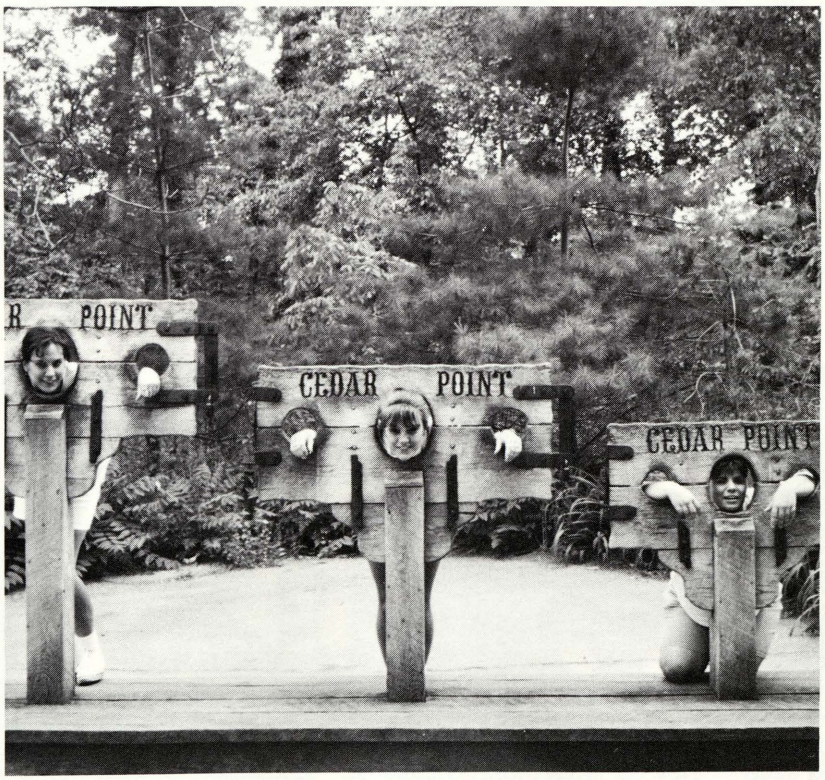


Michelle Hughes enjoys her day at Cedar P

Mr. Miller, Mr. Bird, Mrs. Wujkowsky, Mr. Schrems, and Mrs. Tesauro wait patiently for their dinner at Saw Creek Mill.



Penny Stroik feeds the goats at Cedar Point. Another job by Penny that was really "well done."



Chris Martin, Penny Stroik, and Christie Cliff have a great time at "The Point".

JR/SR PROM

Heidi Wesener and Mike Spradlin get posing help from the photographer.

After the Prom, David McNeil, Brian Manial, Dan Miller, Jeff Schrems, Jerry Simions, and Mike Spradlin sing Karoke.,

These gentlemen of the senior class wait patiently for the camera to "flash".

Friends Forever

Friends Forever

We've been here for years which seems like forever

The time passes so fast I can't remember

These past years of our lives have been the best

I don't want to see them come to rest

But when we go our separate ways

There will still be other days

Don't forget the time we had together

Just you and me and all the laughter

So when it comes time for us to part

Remember these memories you have in your heart.

SV

ADMINISTRATION

The goals of the Swan Valley School District were to review the MEAP scores and find ways to improve them. This year some teachers tried outcome based education. In OBE students must achieve a certain percentage grade on tests: students were required to study and retake tests until they passed. The board looked at the sports program and wanted to know what sports students played and which sports they wanted to play.

VARSITY POM PON

The Best in the Midwest!

The Swan Valley Pom Pon squad, lead by captians Amy Seaver, Amanda Brown, and Brooke Kabobel traveled to Central Michigan University for the Badgerette Pom Pon camp this July. The girls stayed in dorms where they made many friends from all over Michigan. The girls took 2nd Place in Originality. They placed 3rd in Senior Kick, 1st Place in Short Program and they brought home the 1992 1st Place Class A trophy.

The girls then earned the right to go to Chicago, IL to compete in the Mid West Invitational on August 28 and 29.

Then, the Pom Pon squad had the chance to travel with the Varsity Football Team to Marquette, MI for the state finals. The girls were given the chance to perform at an indoor facility. Additionally, girls also organized their own Pom Pon camp for Kindergarten through Eighth Graders.

Team spirit and unity gave them the potential to be the Tri-Valley Champs, and that's just what they did! Swan Valley scored back to back Tri-Valley Conference Championships in the 1991-1992 and 1992-1993 seasons. In the State Playoffs, they beat Grayling at home and then ended up losing to Kingsford at Northern Michigan. Craig Koons said, "The whole year was really exciting and it was a great feeling winning the conference again! "Hopefully, next years team will continue the legacy"

SPIRIT

SPIRIT

Throughout the 92-93 season, the Viking Cheerleaders gave it their all. Through sunshine, rain, snow, and heat they were always shouting out "THE SPIRIT". With, or without a coach, they were always ready. What makes a good cheerleader? "A good cheerleader", says Kristen Czopp, "is someone who has a lot of 'THE SPIRIT' and likes to do things for the school." The cheerleaders made signs, decorated lockers, and sponsored dances. SVHS cheerleaders definitly let their spirit shine.

Freshman Basketball season didn't get off to a great start. The more they worked together as a team, the better they became. But winning wasn't the main point. " Just having fun" said Angelic Young.

Throughout the season everyone enjoyed the sport. The basketball team got along quite well with Mr. Monahan. Playing freshman basketball can be the frist step to becoming a pro. Keep up the good work.

Jesus Garza almost has his Freeland opponent pinned at one of their matches.

Last year the JV team went 18-2! They had a great year. Some of the team members agree that they worked well together. Some said that they did O.K. but they could have played better. "As individuals we have great skills, but we need to focus on our team skills," replied Kelli Mosher.

The Swan Valley freshmen basketball team played great last year. They went 17-2! Chad Arndt and Matt Neagle played because they enjoy it and to keep in shape. They played well, but there is always room for improvement. From the words of Chad and Matt; "On the court we rock the mike like a vandal, light up a stage and work the chump like a candle. We out!"

The JV Softball Team consists of 5 sophmores and 10 freshman. The team ended the 1993 season with 19 and 11 record. This amazing team lead the Vikings to many victories. There were many good times and many bad, but through it all the Vikings team spirit shined through. The softball team went into every game with a winning attitude. The girls could never have been as successful as they were without the excellent coaching staff and softball program.

Tammi Sedgwick ended the year with 11 wins as a starting freshman pitcher. Heather Schrems won with 4 and sophomore Shelly Vasey won 2. Sarah Matuzak lead the team with 44 hits. Matuzak and Vasey were tied with 27 RBI's. Cara Mackeley was the leading sacrifice hitter with a total of 4 sacrifices. Amy Call scored the teams most runs with a year ending total of 46. Vasey also hit the teams only two home runs.

VIKING BASEBALL

The Swan Valley Varsity Baseball team did well even though they lost one of their better picthers, Scott Krueger.

One of the most exciting and spirit lifting games was against Hemlock. Greg Martin pitched the game of the season. We defeated Hemlock in the first game. In the second game we took an early lead until a rain out cancelled our hopes of beating them.

In the District game we went past the first round and were defeated by Bridgeport during swcond game at Nouvel Catholic Central. Our team played their hearts out for the final game of the season.

Christmas Quiz Bowl

Quiz Bowl

Quiz bowl is a fun activity to be involved in. Anyone can be a member of the quiz bowl team. Mrs. Wujkowski has been the Quiz Bowl advisor for the past 4 years, and she has been doing a great job!

The Quiz Bowl is sponsored by the North West Kiwanis of Saginaw Township. The Quiz Bowl is a team competition and requires a lot of effort. Dan Florey, member of the Christmas Quiz Bowl team and the school team, thought "It was really fun and it taught me not to be nervous in front of people. It was a great learning experience."

Seniors Michelle Hughes and Greg Martin get a little romantic on stage.

Ask about the one word that would describe the drama class and the word would have to be "outstanding"! This year the drama class produced two plays under the direction of Mr. Bird. They were "Captain Fantastic" and "The Phantom of the Opry". A superb acting job was done by the entire whole class cast.
Everyone in the Drama class did a lot of work, from designing sets and making posters, to finding original costmes to fit the style of the play. The drama class did an excellent job this year and should be congradulated.

EXCHANGE STUDENTS

NEW EXPERIENCES, NEW TRADITIONS, NEW FRIENDS.

Kazumi Yamashita talks with Mr. Miller, Penny Stroik, and Jodi Hill.

Kazumi pays strict attention to an early morning speaker.

During the 92-93 school year, Kazumi Yamashita, from Japan, and Maika Hermann, from Germany, attended SVHS. Maika was an excellent art student while Kazumi succeeded in track, cross country, and volleyball. Since graduating, both of these fine women have returned to their native lands.

VALHALLA STAFF

This book is presented to the students and staff of SVHS in a reluctantly proud manner. This book represents both a historical document and an example of a true transition year in which chaos seemed to be the key aesthetic.

This book could not have been accomplished without the dedicated help of Jodi Hill, Penny Stroik, and the computer skills of Chris Martin. These three women worked tirelessly through the summer of 1993 to get this thom accomplished.

Further accolades must be extended to Miss Kerr, Stephanie Jones, and Chad Klopf. The computer skills of these people on the archaic Apple IIE's were phenomenal. It is/was like using the Guttenburg Press.

Staff of the 1993-94 yearbook worked deligently to help finalize certain pages of the 92-93 book. Though un-named here, these people were significant keys to wrapping up this exercise. (Please note: Mr. Slade was extremely patient and most cooperative. We cannot thank him enough.)

Your patient observation and understanding will make this annual a true memory of the year represented. The 1992-93 Valhalla staff thanks you for a year well done!

Additional thanks are extended to Mr. C. for photographs used in this book.

SV TAKES PRIDE IN THE COMMUNITY

This artwork was drawn by Jay Fosgitt for the Haunted Train Ride at Roethke Park during Halloween weekend.

Mr. Adams is hopping down the nature walk trail with a wheel barrow full of wood chips.

Tanya Placher and Christy Cliff are walking in the trails at Roethke Park.
